Bisbee, July 16, 1896.

CATTLE INSPECTOR Cunningham left this morning bound for Nogales.

August Joers came in today from a short trip to his mining interests.

S. W. Clawson is having a barn erected on his lot in which to keep his horses.

The new residence of Mrs. Kenzie, on what was formerly the Blum property, is nearing completion.

Mrs. C. Byrne and children returned today from Tucson where they have been visiting for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Maurice Foley and children came in from Tombstone today and will reside here with Mr. Foley who is in the employ of the company.

Rumor has it that one of the editors of the Orb is about to commit matrimony. We are not prepared to say which one it is at present.

R. J. O'Reilly is the "Artemus Ward" of Bisbee and has entertained his many friends upon several occasions with his humorous stories and bright wit.

J. W. Spear, city editor of the Tucson Star, is in town in the interest of his paper. He will make a tour of the mine this evening with a party who are going down.

We hear that they have a McKinley shirt front in Tombstone that is looking for a wearer. Send it over to Bisbee. We think that we can find enough men to fill a few McKinley shirts.

Owing to the faithful work of Roadmaster Geo. S. Shibley, the A. & S. E. road bed is in better shape to withstand the washout season this year than it has ever been. The rains have as yet done no damage nor delayed any trains.

Henry Sumnerman left on this morning's train for Benson, where he will meet the Santa Monica excursion train. Henry has been laid up some time from the effects of an accident which he met with in the mine and hopes to be benefitted by a change of air. He will return in four or five weeks.

Adulteration of Tea.
Appropos of the present agitation started by the Japanese against their own cheap tea, we find the following statement made by James R. Davies, ex-tea-inspector for the port of New York:
"Making tea green does not improve the flavor. It is rather the other way. Of course Prussian Blue and such adulterations are absolutely poisonous."
"There is not enough in the tea to kill, perhaps, but I have no doubt they cause disease."

TO CLEANSE THE SYSTEM.
Effectually yet gently, when five or six times a day when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy action, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headache, colds, fevers, etc. Syrup of Figs.

George C. Blaine, who escaped from the Yuma prison last week was recaptured within thirty-six hours after his escape. He was convicted of murder in Mohave county and sentenced for twenty-five years.

Among the numerous persons who have been cured of rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm, mention should be made of Mrs. Emily Thorne, of Toledo, Wash., who says: "I have never been able to procure any medicine that would relieve me of rheumatism like Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have also used it for lame back with great success. It is the best liniment I have ever used, and I take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by Druggists.
